

The PDF Dragon

Publication of John Thiel

A publication devoted to aesthetics, prosthetics, antithetics, re-electics and eclecticics

This is the first, or introductory, issue of a fanzine intended specifically for this site, recommended to me by Taral Wayne. This first issue is intended chiefly to announce its presence, and to announce what its contents will be. Picture shows an insert capacity.

Now, as to my contents, I have a couple of things in mind. First will be keeping the chronicles of a nonexistent war of the type found in the Marvel Action Group. All in fun, as you may already know.

Secondly, I have given thought to commenting on the other zines here.

I will have editorial matter as well, talking about fandom in general.

And there will be a letter column, if any of you choose to LoC the zine. This may already be done at kinethiel@comcast.net

Not much for a first issue, but it is easy reading. I don't know if the same could be said for following issues.

With Christmas and a New Year coming up, I hope you all pull through nicely into 2016.
